

The UJPA cooperates with large brands and service providers, which is why a broad spectrum with many interesting areas can be offered. The development and growth of its partners is supported as much by the UJPA as the achievement of the goals. In addition, good relationships with other organizations and media companies are fostered. Here is a small selection of these partners:

UPA News International News agency, The News Company. UPA-NEWS is an internationally-active news agency.

German Daily News - America's German-speaking newspaper. The German-American newspaper with the largest circulation in the USA.

PAM! - Lifestyle Magazine, fashion, beauty, people, celebrity news and monthly tips and tricks.

IAPP - Press association. The International Association of Press Photographers, or IAPP, is a global organization of professional press photographers.

NewsmexX TV - Radio and television. International media network and Community for journalists.

GNA of America - The General News Agency.

Global Nature Magazine US Travel Magazine. The US nature magazine all about vacation, travel, nature

The Southern Times - since 1965. The newspaper for Southern USA. The all-around newspaper from UJPA creates alliances with organizations, in order to strengthen its abilities to increase the success of journalists and improve the working conditions of representatives of the media. These partnerships strengthen the goals of the UJPA as much as they strengthen the activities of the journalists. Through its cooperation with a multitude of media companies the UJPA ensures that inspiration, working conditions and success are continuously being improved.